

MAIL HOOK

SAN DIEGO DIVISION, PSR-NMRA

OCTOBER 2004

Superintendent's Report By Ben Sevier

Well, another year is coming to a close. It's been a busy one in the Division, with something going every month - all of it interesting, full of great layouts, interesting people, and lots of trains! We've seen small layouts, big layouts, outdoor layouts and layouts in garages, layouts in their own buildings and layouts in bedrooms. Big trains, little trains, and everything in between. But all have one thing in common - good modeling, great people, and the fun of this great hobby. By the way, when are we going to get a chance to see your layout?

In this issue is an article on various modeling awards earned by members of this Division. However, there is one award that is not given for modeling, but for doing the most to help the San Diego Division during the past year. At the PSR Convention in Glendale this year the San Diego Division "Member of the Year" award, nominated by the Division Director, went to Dave Balsler for all of his hard work in putting together the monthly layout tours. These layout tours have been a great success, bringing together Division members (and guests) each month to learn how other modelers have approached this great hobby. Dave has done a fantastic job getting people to open their layouts to us. Dave, we really appreciate what you have done!!

On a different note, we're going to be trying a different approach to getting information out to you. The postcards that get sent out each month have been a great success (according to those I've talked to at the events), so those will be continued. However, it is expensive to send out both the cards and a 10 page newsletter - printing and postage being the main culprits. Additionally, while it is not obvious in the printed issue, the photographs in the "Mail Hook" are in color, but color printing is very expensive so we don't do it. While the Division is not by any means "broke", the funds we have are finite, and will be almost exhausted by printing and mailing costs before our next "influx" of funds, the PSR Convention in 2006 - which will also need funding. So, there will be a few changes:

First, the Mail Hook will no longer sent out in paper form to all members. Instead, it will be published electronically (e-mail and the website) - this will enable you to get it faster, with color and more pages. If you don't have access to e-mail or the web (and not everyone does), you can get a paper copy in one of 2 ways - attend a Division function (Meet, layout tour, etc), where they will be available, or assist with the cost of the publication with a small subscription fee of $6.00/year for NMRA members. In order to receive each quarterly issue by e-mail, send your e-mail address to: sddiv@sbcglobal.net. Please include your full name, address and phone number as well, so that we can update our records. Your e-mail information will not be released to anyone outside of the NMRA for any purpose.

Secondly, we will be expanding informational mailings such as post cards and flyers to keep you informed of upcoming and current events. These appear to be a much better use of our funds, and will keep you informed of "what's happening" as it happens.

Thirdly, as I've mentioned in the past, we're working on getting the Division Website up and running - we have a domain name, and are mainly waiting on the Webmaster (that's me) to get the

Layout Meets & Tours

By David Balser, Layout Tour Chairman

The year is coming to an end, and we have seen some great layouts! I would like to thank the gentlemen who have invited us to their homes during the past year and shared the Model Railroads they have built. January – Don Fowler, February – Art & Lou Dominy, March – Nelson Rath, April – Bob Chapparo Orange County Road Trip, May – Rodger Gredvig and Randy Schissler, June – Cajon Division Tour, July – John Sigurdson, August – San Diego Model Railroad Museum, September – Dick Roberts, and in October – Dave Balser.

Coming up in November and December are two really neat layouts: Ross Black's On30 "Beaver Creek Railway" and in December the "World Famous" Steve Harris and his

Dave Balser & Ed Hatch

HOn3 "Rio Grande Southern".

Ross has been working in On30 for about 15 years and has a mining railroad with very large trees and scratch built buildings. Ross always has at least a half dozen projects on his workbench and a few dozen more in the works. I have known Ross for a long time and he is one of the most creative modelers around. His layout is in his garage and the atmosphere he has created is pure fun. Watch out for the real whipsaws hanging from his ceiling! Even if you are not working in this scale you will see some new ideas and have a good time.

I refer to Steve as "World Famous" because his efforts have been rewarded by a cover shot and an article in the November '04 issue of Model Railroader. Check that issue for all the details. Steve is an excellent modeler and has been a clinician at many conventions. His railroad is a two level design, is operated by DCC and the locomotive sounds, especially the Goose, make everything come to life.

The Layout Tours for the first three months of 2005 are set. We will be making a return visit to the N-scale Southern Pacific of Don Fowler, the HOn30 Westside Lumber Company of Burton Maxwell, and the HO scale B&O "West End" of Jack Byers.

Since our last visit to Don's layout last January a lot of work has been done. Don models the Southern Pacific during the 1975 to 1995 period between West Colina and Colfax, California, with guest appearances by other west coast railroads. Features include sound systems, operating grade crossings, block signals, and night lighting. Since the last visit Don and his crew have completed a lot more scenery, the desert town of Mojave, three tunnels, a stream, a motel, and a campground. There is also new night lighting and more sound effects. As we go to press Don has assured me many new projects will be completed by January.

A new layout on the tour will be the Westside Lumber Company of Burton Maxwell. Burton is recreating portions of the famous logging line in HOn3 and is incorporating certain aspects of the real company such as Buffalo Landing, Camp 8, River Bridge, Cleavey River Bridge and eventually Camp 45. Current projects under way are the engine facilities, car repair shops, sand & oil facility and the sawmill. The layout is a point to point design in a 16x37 foot room with scenery about halfway done and trackage about 80% complete. Being scheduled for a layout tour normally motivates a builder, and Burton is planning on completing a lot of those projects he has underway.

Jack Byers has purchased a 12x42 foot modular building, has set it up next to his house and dedicated it 100% to his railroad. A space of 8x12 feet has been set aside at one end for his workshop, library, and lounge area.

Jack is modeling the B&O "West End" with the hub

of the railroad set in Grafton, West Virginia in the mid 1950's. Big steam is predominant, but diesels are arriving. The terrain is steep but the grades are limited to 2%. The creeks and hollers will have mines and lumber operations that provide the operating revenue. The layout is a two level walk in design with benchwork around three walls and a center peninsula. By March track will be laid and the train will be running. Jack thanked me for getting him on the tour because he said it will be a real incentive to get moving!

Layout tours for the balance of 2005 have not been set although I do have the old regulars ready to jump in and host again.

If you have a layout, or if you know someone who does, take the big step and commit for a date in the future to be a host. If you do, I promise you will drop that magazine you have already worn out and add some track and scenery to the old "Plywood Central". Visitors like to see layouts that are in the construction stage so the wiring, benchwork, switch machines, and other things are fully exposed. You will be helping the new guy get started and the old hands may answer some questions you might have about your next project.

I am going to take the step and sign up for next year because as of today I am tearing down the HO scale Onion Valley and rebuilding a new version in On30. I have lots of work to do but it will give me new motivation to build something better. You should do it too!

The January tour at Don's house will be Saturday the 15th from noon to three. The February tour at Burton's house will be on Sunday the 13th from noon to three and on Monday night the 14th from 6:00 PM to 10:00 PM (please note the times and dates). The March tour at Jack's house will be on Saturday the 12th from noon to three. Directions for all the tours will be sent to you by postcard the week of the tour. If you don't get a postcard call me at (760) 436-6139 and I will get you directions. Layout tours are set up for members and associates, but you are encouraged to bring along anyone who is interested in the hobby.

Sam Dale - Running on the 'N'

Editor's note: One of the best ways to get someone who's been "out of the hobby" for a while is to get them to come along on a layout tour. While the tours are noted to energize those of us who are being a bit laggard on working on our layouts, they also serve as an incentive for "inactive" hobbyists to get back in, especially when they see the changes that have come about with the fantastic availability of smooth running models, DCC, new techniques, and of course the impact of being around others who are as "strange" as they are in the love of trains and modeling. So, grab that neighbor who is always talking about that layout he had as a kid, along with his wife and kids, and bring them along. I can assure you they will enjoy the adventure, and you will have helped your friend, and the hobby. See you there!

Clinicians Needed!

We are currently compiling a resource list of members who are willing to provide training on various aspects of model railroading to be provided at meets, shows and conventions.

General topics may include bench work, track, electronics, scenery, operations, engines & rolling stock, maintenance, history, or any other related topics. There are many talented modelers within our Division who have developed or refined many techniques and skills. In order to expand our membership and support each other, these skills need to be shared. If you would like to contribute your talents to help support our hobby, please contact our new Clinic Chair Don Fowler for further information. We welcome experienced clinicians and newcomers as well. Assistance is available for developing presentations if desired. The more you invest in our Division, the more you'll get out of model railroading.

Director's Report

By Rodger Gredvig, MMR

At the recent PSR convention in Glendale the election results were announced and Ed Hall won a second term as PSR President. Since there were no candidates for VP, Bill Mergard of the LA Division has accepted the appointment by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors. With the adoption of the LRP (Long Range Plan) at the National Convention last June, the regional President will now also serve on the NMRA Regional Advisory Council as our representative. Therefore, the position of Trustee will no longer exit after June 30, 2005. In the meantime, Bill Jacobs of the Cajon Division was elected to serve the remaining months as Trustee. We will learn more about the new structure after the National Trustee Board meets in January.

At the PSR Board of Directors a decision was made to revise the contract policy for hosting the regional conventions.

Beginning in 2006 (San Diego's turn), the host Division will receive "the first 30% of net profits, with the remaining sum split between the host and the region" -- essentially this means a 65-35% distribution. In the past the San Diego Division kept the first $4000, before splitting the remainder with the region. Curiously, under the old policy, over the last 10 years the San Diego Division contributed more than $9000 to the Region -- which (discounting the National Convention in Long Beach) was more than the other 3 divisions combined! The new policy is believed by some as a way to bring additional revenue to the region which is suffering from stagnated growth in membership. Time will tell. In the meantime, we have already begun a search for a site for our next PSR Convention in 2006. If you have suggestions (or special connections) please let us know.

Speaking of the Board of Directors, I will complete my maximum two terms as Director next year. A new Director (or slate of candidates) needs to be proposed by the mid-year BoD in March. Please submit names (even your own) to our Superintendent, Ben Sevier prior to that date.

Awards & Presentations

Division members have been active this past year, working on the various awards and certificates that are available in the NMRA Achievement Program (AP).

If you are not aware of the AP program, which is comprised of various certificates leading up to the Master Model Railroader (MMR) certification, check out the NMRA web site at www.nmra.org. The process of completing each of the certificates is designed to teach you more about the hobby of model railroading, and improve your modeling skills.

I've been notified that Paul Schmitt has completed all the requirements for the MMR certification, and it has been approved by NMRA as MMR #342. Paul completed the Motive Power, Cars, Scenery, Model Railroad Engineer-Civil, Model Railroad Engineer-Electrical, Chief Dispatcher and Association Volunteer certificates. Hopefully we will have the award certificate for the official presentation at the Winter Meet in February. Congratulations to Paul!!

Gordon Miller has been working on his AP certifications, and completed his second one last year.

Rodger Gredvig & Gordon Miller

However, he has been on sea duty since, so hasn't been around for his official presentation. Rodger presented Gordon with his award during the Layout Tour at Dick Roberts' house. Good work, Gordon!

Don Fowler (our intrepid Clerk/Paymaster) has been hard at work on the paperwork for his AP certificates, and he was awarded his first one, "Master Builder Scenery" at the PSR convention in Glendale in September. Reportedly, Don is close to finishing up several more for next year, with the MMR as his goal - keep at it, Don! You will get a chance to see Don's 'N' scale layout during the Layout Tour in January - don't miss it - you won't believe what can be done in 'N' scale.

At the PSR Convention (great event - you shouldn't have missed it!), there were very few models entered into the Model Contest. However, the quality of those entered was very high, and one of the neatest was an 'N' scale passenger non-revenue car (an Electric Power Car for a Circus Train) entered by our own Bob Moore. While Bob normally models in 'HO' scale, he built this car for a friend and won an award for it. Actually, he won four awards: First Place in Non-Revenue Cars, the Ingenuity Award, the PSR

Ben Sevier & Don Fowler

President's Award in the First PSR Entry category, and First Place in the Color Photography category for his picture "4449 Meets the Yakima". Bob also presented an interesting clinic at the convention. Congratulations, Bob!

While many of us don't think we are "good enough" to enter and win contests, you might be very surprised at how good you really are. At the Division Meets each quarter we offer a model contest, which you can enter just by bringing a model. In participating in the contest, you can learn what you did right, (or not), develop as a modeler, and have a good time. Which is what this hobby is all about.

So, this will be the last "mass mailed" issue of the Mail Hook. Please let me know what you think about this (or any other Division issue or question) by e-mail, regular mail or a phone call.

As mentioned by Rodger in his column, we are looking for someone to volunteer for the position of Division Director. This person represents the Division on the PSR Board of Directors, does not take a large amount of time, and can be a rewarding experience. If you are interested, let me or one of the other people listed in the Staff Directory know. We have to send nominations in to the PSR by February 1st, 2005 for submission to the Board of Directors.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at the next layout tour or Division Meet.
